Aussie Wine Month celebrates the best of Australian wine

The biggest celebration of Australian wine, Aussie Wine Month, will return this May to showcase the exceptional quality and diversity of wine produced in our own backyard.

Now in its sixth year, hundreds of restaurants, bars, wineries and cellar doors across Australia will hold wine focused events during Aussie Wine Month. The month long event gives everyone - from wine enthusiasts to novices, the chance to experience new and legendary Australian wines and discover more about what makes our wines exciting and unique.

From intimate events with winemakers to matching food and wine dinners, festivals, tastings and even specials on your favourite Aussie wines, there's something for everyone this Aussie Wine Month.

What: Aussie Wine Month

Where: Across Australia

When: 1-31 May 2017

Details: For the full calendar of activity and to buy tickets to events visit www.aussiewinemonth.com

Aussie Wine Month supports the Australian wine community and raises awareness of the diversity and premium quality of Australian wine. Home to thousands of wineries dotted throughout 65 wine regions across the country, Australian wine regions produce more than 100 different grape varieties.

About Wine Australia

Wine Australia supports a competitive wine sector by investing in research, development and extension (RD&E), growing domestic and international markets and protecting the reputation of Australian wine.

Wine Australia is funded by grape growers and winemakers through levies and user-pays charges and the Australian Government, which provides matching funding for RD&E investments
